1. What is the current URL for the CIA mirror website on the dark web?

Search for the CIA's URL on the browser and you will get the URL. The current URL for the CIA mirror website on the dark web is `ciadotgov4sjwlzihbbgxnqg3xiyrg7so2r2o3lt5wz5ypk4sxyjstad.onion`

Secure, anonymous, untraceable—traits ever-present in CIA's intelligence collection mission—and the same is true for our onion site, which is now available over the Tor network at:

`ciadotgov4sjwlzihbbgxnqg3xiyrg7so2r2o3lt5wz5ypk4sxyjstad.onion`

2. Visit the CIA mirror site and search for "Our Organization" on the "About" sub-menu. What is the first of the seven basic components of the CIA?

The seven basic components of the CIA are Directorate of Analysis, Directorate of Operations, Directorate of Science and Technology, Directorate of Digital Innovation, Directorate of Support, Mission Centers, Executive Offices.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar displaying the URL `ciadotgov4sjwlzihbbgxnqg3xiyrg7so2r2o3lt5wz5ypk4sxyjstad.onion/about/organization/`. The website has a dark header with the CIA logo and navigation links: "Today's CIA", "Careers", "Legacy", "Newsroom", and "Library". On the right, there are links for "CONTACT" and "REPORT INFORMATION", and a search bar. The main content area features a "Contents" sidebar on the left with a list of links: "Directorate of Analysis", "Directorate of Operations", "Directorate of Science and Technology", "Directorate of Digital Innovation", "Directorate of Support", "Mission Centers", and "Executive Offices". The "Directorate of Analysis" link is highlighted. The main content area displays the title "Directorate of Analysis" in large, bold letters, followed by a paragraph describing its role: "The Directorate of Analysis provides timely, accurate, and objective intelligence analysis. Analysts inform U.S. officials, like the president and his or her senior advisers, on key foreign issues. Officers who work within the Directorate of Analysis are excellent puzzle-solvers who take information, often with missing pieces, and make sense of it. Then, they deliver written reports and brief policymakers to help them make informed decisions." Below this is a "Careers" section with a paragraph: "A career in the Directorate of Analysis means anticipating and quickly assessing evolving international developments. In addition to oral briefings, these officers create highly-sensitive products like the CIA World Intelligence Review and contribute to the President's Daily Brief." The bottom of the page is partially visible, showing the start of another paragraph: "There is no 'one size fits all' career path at the Directorate of..."
